	Hosts Clifford and Nedda Horvath introduce a segment on AIDS. Today's guest is Diane Scalise, Supervisor of Health Education for the Broward County School Board. She talks about the AIDS Education bill which appropriates for the teaching of sexual abstinence. She says that each county is pulling together a team of teachers, administrators and parents to help inform students about the AIDS virus and the disease. She also says that the AIDS curriculum in public schools of Broward County will be updated, including giving information on the history of the disease and how the disease can be contracted.

	This edition of Feedback with host Carleton Pearson addresses the issue of AIDS. Guest panelists are: Dr. David Withum, an AIDS Field Service Coordinator with Health and Rehabilitative Services; Dr. Paul Cimoch, immunology specialist; and AIDS victim Robert Glory. Dr. Withum shares the startling rate at which AIDS has spread in the U.S. since 1981. He sites the four basic ways of contracting AIDS: sexual transmission; drug needles; mother/child transmission; and tainted blood. Dr. Withum discusses the difference between having AIDS and carrying the H.I.V. AIDS Virus. Robert Glory shares the physical, mental, and financial hardships of his fight with AIDS, giving testimony of how the Lord has lessened the burden of this disease.

AIDS (cont'd)	Praise The Lord 0323-88* Jerry Barnard interviews Dr. William C. Douglass, President of the Douglass Center for Nutrition and Preventative Medicine in Marietta, Ga. Having practiced medicine for 25 years and author of The Milk of Human Kindness , Dr. Douglas shares various insights on preventative medicine but his main discussion is about AIDS. His recently publicized belief is that the AIDS plague actually began as a work of scientific experimentation. The blame is being laid on WHO (World Health Organization) for introducing the virus from cows and sheep into a small pox vaccine. The London Times reported that WHO found out about the disease and chose not to report it. He mentions that WHO did a Hepatitis B. experiment in which only homosexuals were used.	Net	PA/O	03-23-88 10:00 p.m	1.59.48

	Joy 0429-88 Jim McClellan interviews Cliff Cartland, journalist and researcher. Cartland, publisher and editor of Family Life Today and author of You Can Protect Yourself And Family , summarizes his book on AIDS, giving such primary information as the means of contracting AIDS which he states as: either through homosexual activity or intravenous injections. He mentions the elusiveness of the virus, in that it may show up as late as eight years after the microscopic cells have been found. He warns against contact with infected blood or oral blood, or with infected saliva. He laments that many myths and misconceptions are being disseminated which only frighten people and are unfounded. AIDS (cont'd)	Director of New Creation Ministries--a ministry to help gays change their sexual orientation; John Hunter, former gay and presently director of The AIDS Resource Center. They point out the need of the church to accept the homosexual and the AIDS victim, not approving of their lifestyle, but extending love in order that God's love for every person may be seen. AIDS has become a civil rights issue because the public has denied AIDS victims some of their rights.
	Dr. D. James Kennedy #821	Rec.	PA/O	05-22-88 7:00 a.m.	58:30
	Dr. Kennedy presents the latest facts on the status of AIDS in America today with the help of interviews with qualified doctors, social workers and others. He asks what the reaction of the audience is to the victims of AIDS: the hemophiliacs, babies born with AIDS, drug users, spouses buried in the deception of an adulterous affair, and the place where it has been most visible--the homosexual community. He also takes a close look at the political battles that have limited our country's effective handling of this disease which, as a result, has left it free of the communicable disease category, and thus free of protective legislation.

	Pat Robertson laments the deplorable situation of AIDS. He mentions the AIDS material sent by the Government to each household in America at a cost of $17 million dollars, and he deplores the fact that some of the information is not only misleading, but incorrect, and fails to mention other ways that AIDS can be transmitted other than through sexual contact. Pat calls it a "cover-up". He mentions that one hospital that tested its babies for AIDS had more cases than was reported for the entire United States.

He reports that it costs $140,000 to treat one case of AIDS, resulting in a cost of $63-75 billion dollars for the care of half a million AIDS cases. U.S. Representative William Dannemeyer of California says that the gay rights groups have intimidated health officials and Congress and kept them from treating AIDS like other communicable diseases. Even venereal diseases have to be reported, even though they are curable, unlike the fatal disease of AIDS. Dr. Cory SerVaas, a member of the President's Commission On AIDS, says The Commission's chairman is trying to push through a bill making the privacy of the victim paramount.

Olson discusses how the Church (Christians) should respond to AIDS. He says most agencies deal with the AIDS patient's physical needs. The Church is to transcend that by adding mental and spiritual support. However, the approach should not be judgmental. Inter-faith Clergy on AIDS strongly advocates consciousness-raising education on AIDS.

	Ben Kinchlow introduces a news feature and discussion of the AIDS epidemic. They report on the march of 100,000 gays on Washington. Dr. Harold Kaffe, Chief of AIDS Epidemiology in Washington says there is a small risk of AIDS to heterosexuals. There are now 40,000 AIDS cases and only 276 are heterosexuals, and all but three were bi-sexual or drug addicts. Michael Schwartz, co-author of Gays, AIDS, and You contends we need mandatory reporting and routine testing. He further contends that AIDS has been a politically protected disease since it has occurred mostly among gays.

Shelia Walsh and Pat Robertson introduced Ray Iddings. Ray came from a broken home, was lonely and had turned from church to alcoholism. He became more violent as time went on, beating up people with no remorse. He had often been beaten in his drunken stupor and this agitated his outlook even more. Finally, he and a drunken buddy got into it and Ray shot him. He went to prison where the hopelessness and helplessness sat in deeply. He realized he needed help and started praying the best he could. While praying, he heard three words "tell the truth". He did this at his trial and was released on lack of evidence. He is now working with alcoholics in prisons and has freedom, family, stability and a relationship with Jesus Christ.

program. Belonging to Youth Crime Watch was presented as a positive alternative to gang involvement. Teaching kids to be good citizens reaching their communities, to strive to be productive adults after graduation are over-all goals of the Youth Crime watch organization. Combining teachers, principals, school custodians and parental involvement helps the teens become and stay motivated. When students see privileges such as night football games reinstated because school crime was reduced, makes them more willing to be part of solutions to youth crime instead of causing the problem. Viewers were told how to start a Youth Crime watch program in their schools.
